To day this file put up before the court Respondant appeared but the appellant absent and not appeared.

①

Respondant argued, that the appellant earlier on 1.06.2018 has faced the consequences of dismissal the appeal due to non compliance of the order of the court and absent without reason and information of the Court, He further added that against this order, he filed the appeal to the Hon

Board of revenue, the board however set aside the order but find him guilty of non appearing before the RAA though he is an appellant, and finally order against him to ^{imposed} cost of Rs. 1000. on dated.

8.01.19, he has to deposited this fine Respondent further argued that, even after the order of Hon. BOR, the appellant again today not appears before this court - it seem his aloofness to seek justice. He also argued, that the respondent being harassed by the applicant through this time barred appeal which filed after ^{passed the} 14 years of challenged order, without cited sufficient cause and justification moreover, the appellant was not been party and aggrieved person when the order were passed as, he has purchased the said piece of land ~~before~~ four years ago only and challenged the order passed by subordinate court 14 years ago. It is ^{an} unreasonable delay itself.

→ We having satisfied the argument and conduct of the appellant - c that shows his guilt. It is therefore the appeal dismissed at all with cost Rs. 1000/- pronounce order, in open court.
