

17.1.18
 86.10.17

32

1. In the above mentioned case, the fact that the complainant has not filed any complaint with the police station is not a bar to the filing of a writ petition in the court of law. The court has held that the fact that the complainant has not filed a complaint with the police station is not a bar to the filing of a writ petition in the court of law. The court has held that the fact that the complainant has not filed a complaint with the police station is not a bar to the filing of a writ petition in the court of law.

17.1.18
 86.10.17